Prince Consort Road, South Kensington S.W. 7.

INCREASE IN FEES

The Council of the Royal College of Music have instructed me to announce that, owing to further heavy increase in costs, it will be necessary to raise tuition fees for all students in College from September 1966. From that date fees will be £70 a term (£210 a year) for all full time students and £35 a term (£105 a year) for students taking the Short Course, (one study only). Extra Fees will not be altered.
